1. When [ ] was in Mexico City on the visit referred to in reference, arrangements were made through [ ] of the local Security Service for five Mexicans to receive mail from the USSR, to save this mail and then send it (unopened) to [ ] at his Munich address. 2. [ ] agreed to pay each of the five persons $25.00 (US) monthly plus $1.00 for such each letter sent to [ ] plus all postal costs. The five persons chosen were, for the most part, wives of Security Service officers who could make a little extra money and who would automatically have protection when the question of receiving mail from the USSR came up. 3. No one of the five heard from [ ] subsequently, and, by [ ] reports, no one received any letters of the kind desired. 4. [ ] has, as of 14 May 1968, again been asked if Identity 3 or reference would be willing to cooperate as previously requested, and he has confirmed this. 5. It is suggested that [ ] send the first payment of $25.00 (US) to [ ], who will pass it to Identity 3 (via [ ] and return a receipt for it. Also, the instructions to be passed to [ ] who will put these into Spanish and pass them to Identity 3 (via [ ]) are requested. 6. Future correspondence could then be between [ ] and Identity 3 by mail. 7. It is hoped that the above is satisfactory.
